“When you pray, move your feet.” This is an African proverb that the Principal of Annunciation school used after a shooting occurred there. This saying inspired the socks to show others that while you pray, take action and make a change.

My name is Cora Goldade, and I’m a student at New Prague Middle School. I’m doing the Benjamin Project to benefit the Fletcher Scholarship and the Annunciation Light Alliance. The Benjamin Project involves teachers nominating students for a $100 grant to give back to the community in meaningful ways.

I've chosen to donate to these organizations because I want to help the people who have been affected by the school shooting at Annunciation, and others like this one. I hope these donations play a small part in ending gun violence, especially in schools. My inspiration comes from my friends who attend Annunciation and were affected by this shooting. I want to support families impacted by this violence. I hope you will support this cause. You can read more about where the proceeds will go below.

Fletcher Merkel Memorial Endowment Fund: The Fletcher Merkel Memorial Endowment Fund was established in loving memory of 8-year-old Fletcher Merkel. This endowment fund will provide access to Catholic education through tuition assistance scholarships for PreK–8th-grade students attending Annunciation Catholic School.

Annunciation Light Alliance: We believe in a future where every child can learn, play, and worship free from gun violence. We now work to transform our tragedy into a hope that inspires lasting change.

Thank you!
